

Books by Mail Application

Books by Mail is a service that provides qualified users with access to Lorain Public Library System materials.

Books by Mail is free to all who qualify. However, the U.S. Postal Service allows the library to ship material free of charge to those who meet certain qualifications.

If you have a disability or other limitation that prevents you from visiting the library, you may qualify for Books by Mail.

You are eligible if you live in: Avon, Camden Township, Columbia Township, Eaton Township (only the area in the Columbia Local School District), Henrietta Township, Kipton Village, Lorain, North Ridgeville, Sheffi eld Lake, Sheffi eld Township or Sheffield Village.

Date of Birth _____

Name _____

Lorain Public Library System card number _____

Street address _____

City _____ Zip _____

Phone number _____

Email address (optional) _____

Reason for requesting service _____

Signature _____

