Supervisors

Ms. Grizzell welcomed everyone to the South branch and thanked them for letting her speak first. The Food for Fines outreach has been well received some patrons are even donating without owing fines. Ms. Grizzell expressed it has renewed her faith in humanity. South branch is wrapping up their outreach in the schools, Ms. Grizzell has worked with all the students at St. Vincent elementary including parents. Ms. Grizzell took the opportunity during one of the outreach programs to give an emedia tutorial to the parents. Those parents expressed their appreciation and surprise at how much the library offers. Ms. Grizzell did a black history month program on Harlem Renaissance Music for fourth graders. Due to the great response of these fourth graders Ms. Grizzell will begin to look beyond regular story times to reach out to school aged children. Dr. Raquel Ortiz, a local author that moved to New York, is now on the National Puerto Rican Parade Board and reached out to Ms. Grizzell and Ms. Diamond-Ortiz about shining a spotlight on the Puerto Rican community of Lorain. Dr. Raquel wants to use the South branch to host interviews in order to show a sneak peek at the local community and their

Report of the Director

Ms. Diamond-Ortiz spoke regarding the Puerto Rican Parade opportunities. Dr. Ortiz is looking for school aged children to be ambassadors of Puerto Rican Heritage. El Centro of New York wants to offer a program to certify these children as ambassadors and is interested in using our library to offer this program. Ms. Novak asked the age of the children that would be offered this opportunity, Ms. Diamond-Ortiz stated school aged and hopefully the students that are recipients of the scholarships offered by the scholarship committee of the parade.

Ms. Diamond-Ortiz reminded the board of Legislative Day on March 29, 2017. There will be a bus to transport everyone. Senator Manning and State Representatives will be in attendance.

The library is now offering patrons courtesy bags with the library logo. These bags are a good way to market and protect our items.

The tentative date for the board retreat is May 6, 2017, from 10 a.m. – 4 p.m. Ms. Diamond-Ortiz is looking at El Centro or The Second Harvest Food Bank as places to hold this retreat. Ms. Diamond-Ortiz asked the board for any other ideas regarding places to hold this event.

Ms. Diamond-Ortiz advised of the first unconference being held at Avon branch on April 7, 2017. This is a program offered to staff who want to brainstorm regarding the future of the library. This unconference will be held after hours and includes refreshments.

Report of the Assistant Director

SEIU 1199

SEIU 1199 contract negotiation has begun. There have been four sessions with the first one on February 9, 2017, and the last one on March 7, 2017. There has been a mediator there for one session. There will be five more sessions with the hope of a contract agreement by March 31, 2017. There has been a phone call to James Leonard and a letter sent to SEIU 1199 representative regarding asbestos abatement. The abatement will be contained to the boiler room only. This abatement is in preparation for the HVAC upgrade at the Main Library.

Events/Meetings

Ms. Whitney attended a HR Networking group which was a wonderful opportunity to meet with other library representatives from North East Ohio.

Ms. Whitney attended a Northern Ohio Human Resource conference at the IX center. The keynote speaker was fabulous, energetic and encouraging.

Branch Projects

Ms. Whitney advised the branch projects are on hold due to negotiations. South branch will have carpet and paint renovations during the year. Avon branch the dumpster gate is broken possibly due to high winds. Parts are on order for the repair.
