

Books by Mail Service

351 W. Sixth Street, Lorain, OH 44052

440-244-1192

Some people need to use large print books, audio materials or descriptive videos because of a visual or physical disability. They are eligible to receive these materials postage-free through the postal provision called "Free Matter for Blind and Other Physically Disabled Persons."

To receive this benefit, the Post Office requires individuals to certify their eligibility.

Please return this completed form to the Books by Mail service when you return your books.
