She then said that unions all over the state are currently trying to collect 231,147 valid signatures, to place a Referendum of the measure on the November 8th general election ballot. In addition, Ms. Eldridge stated that collective bargaining affects all employees, not just union members.
Ms. Eldridge said she has been running around to many events and meetings over the last month, and also thanked Mr. Leandry for inviting the Board Members to attend the candidates’ forum next week.
